CONFESSES SHE KILLED STEPSON
AND BURIED HIM

Woman Sobs Out Story of Murder in Little Illinois Jail

HIT HIM WITH AN AXE

Declares Son of Her Husband Attacked Her While Drunk

Carlinville, Ill., June 25.—Sobbing fitfully as she held her 14-month-old baby in her arms in the county jail, Mrs. Katherine Harmon today confessed that she killed Roy Harmon, 19-year-old stepson, last Sunday morning.

She said she killed him with an axe and threw the body into a well where it was found Friday by a neighbor when picking blackberries.

Mrs. Harmon said her stepson assaulted her Saturday night. Continuing the quarrel Sunday morning in the kitchen of their home at Green Ridge she said she struck him three times with an axe. She put the body in a box and dragged it to a shed where it remained all day Sunday. That night she dug a hole and buried the body.

Mailed Letter. Monday morning, Mrs. Harmon said, she went to Gillespie, where she wrote and mailed a letter to the boy's grandmother saying he had been kidnapped and was held for ransom. About daybreak Wednesday morning, Mrs. Harmon said she dug up the body, tied several pieces of towel around the neck and dragged it to the well nearby.

Young Harmon returned home about midnight Saturday night, she said, and entered her room. She said he had been drinking and assaulted her, telling threatening her she told.

After slaying the youth Mrs. Harmon scrubbed the kitchen and tore paper off the walls in an effort to remove blood stains.

Mrs. Harmon and her husband, young Harmon's father, recently separated.

ASSAIL EFFORTS TO DRAG CHURCH
INTO POLITICS

Independents Report on Incident of Tour of R. A. Nestos

Fargo, N. D., June 25.—Efforts alleged to have been made to use the Mandan circuit of the Young People's League of the Norwegian United Lutheran Church of America are condemned in statements issued by Independents boosting R. A. Nestos' candidacy for governor.

The story says that a year ago Nestos had promised to address the annual convention of the Mandan circuit this year. The convention was held at Dunn Center and Nestos was scheduled to speak on Saturday, the 11th, on the subject of "Christian Citizenship." When the program was made public by the district committee some nonpartisans objected to Nestos' name and a few men are said to have threatened to break up the convention if he came to speak. Nestos passed up the meeting, on being informed of this, going on to Killdeer where arrangements had been made to take him to the Killdeer mountains to make a non-political speech at a country picnic.

Before the close of the Young People's convention the trustees of the Normanna Lutheran church issued a statement condemning attempts to make political capital out of the matter. They named the Dunn County Farmers Journal and its editor.

Nestos spoke at Halliday Thursday. He made two speeches, the hall being unable to accommodate the crowd at one time.

BRINTON CASE
MOVES SLOWLY
IN DIST. COURT

State Laying Foundation For Introduction of Evidence

BEGIN THE TESTIMONY

The trial of J. W. Brinton, charged with perjury in connection with testimony given before the house audit committee last winter, proceeded today with jurors, attorneys and a few spectators in the courtroom sweltering under 99-degree temperature. All of the jurors removed their coats when they entered the jury box, although one juror clung to his vest.

J. F. Weeks, special assistant attorney-general, recalled Secretary of State Thomas Hall to the stand when the court opened to elicit from him the information that records of the house journal, which were sought, are now in use in the preparation of the official copy, and then placed Charles Wattam, official reporter for the house committee, on the stand.

After Judge Nussle had sustained Attorney LeSueur's objection to Mr. Weeks' request of Wattam to read from the transcript of the testimony the agreement was reached whereby the transcript of Brinton's testimony would be read to the jury, with the understanding that it would be available to the jury, court and attorneys all of the time during the trial, but would not be taken to the jury room.

Cathro Present

F. W. Cathro, director-general of the Bank of North Dakota, was in the court room to be called as a witness when the state completed its preliminary action. Mr. Cathro was placed on the stand about 2 p. m.

D. B. Shipley, who was secretary of the house audit committee, was called to the stand by the state to testify to the fact of Brinton's testimony before the house investigation, and was asked other necessary questions in the state's preliminary. Attorney LeSueur asked him to return this afternoon and produce the findings of the house audit committee.

The jury was selected about 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, 12 men being selected out of 20 called to the jury box. The members of the jury are: John E. Johnson, Broadcloth, farmer; Tony Strell, Bismarck, farmer; L. E. Heaton, McKenzie, farmer, stock-buyer and independent member of legislature; H. S. Dobler, Bismarck, lumberman; John Gunderson, Driscoll, farmer; E. A. Lewis, Baldwin, farmer; Joe Schneider, Bismarck, manager Standard Oil filling station; S. S. Clifford, restaurant owner; John Weber, Sterling, farmer; W. H. Webb, Bismarck, merchant; Fred Ryberg, Frances township, farmer; W. S. Nichols, Florence Lake township, farmer.

The jury was obtained much sooner than was expected, and without the exercise of all of the peremptory challenges, of which the state was allowed five and the defense ten. Several were challenged for cause. The jurors called to the jury box before the jury finally was obtained included John E. Johnson, A. S. Bolster, John Homan, Adam Voigt, Tony Strell, Carl E. Johnson, L. E. Heaton, Ed Olson, W. S. Nichols, Fred Long, Max Kupitz, A. McCoy, H. S. Dobler, John Sabot, John Gunderson, G. N. Keniston, E. A. Lewis, Joseph Schneider, L. M. Ostman, N. F. Julius, S. S. Clifford, John Weber, Melvin Olson, Emil Kaiser, Tom O'Connor and Fred Ryberg.

George K. Foster, a assistant attorney-general, Bismarck, resident to-day sat with Mr. Weeks during the examination of the jurors. Attorney-General Lemke, who is to be a witness was not present.

Reads Information. Mr. Weeks read the long information filed by the state against Brinton in which certain testimony given by Brinton before the house audit committee last winter when the investigation of state industries was conducted, was set out. He said that the state would establish by records that Brinton actually said the things he was alleged to have testified to before that committee and would prove by witnesses and documents that Brinton testified falsely.

His opening statement, in addition to the reading of the information, was confined to a brief statement that the state would prove its contentions that Brinton's charges of wrong-doing against members of the state administration were false.

First Witness Called. Thomas Hall, secretary of state, was called as the first witness at 4:45 p. m., but was not present and Charles Wattam, shorthand reporter for the house audit committee, was called. When Mr. Weeks began to question him Attorney LeSueur objected to the line of questioning, pointing out paragraphs in the information which he said were not properly drawn.

Mr. Hall came in the courtroom and was put on the stand. LeSueur objected to Mr. Weeks' questioning of the secretary of state, who produced copies of the daily house journal, from which Mr. Weeks expected to establish the facts of the investigation at which Brinton was alleged to have

Relate Story of Shooting in Which Rancher Lost His Life

PROSECUTOR BARRED

Hettinger, June 25.—Defendants in the Bowen murder trial have been granted separate trials. D. H. Offley is the first to be tried and the jury is composed of the following men: Cliff Truax, A. T. Dahl, John Geddes, Henry Mattis, L. P. Steele, William Melray and M. H. Quickstad.

States Attorney Oppgaard of Golden Valley disqualified himself as his firm had business relations with the defendants attorney. P. B. Garberge of Hettinger has been appointed special prosecutor by the court.

C. A. McClure, neighbor of the man who was killed, was the first witness called. He told of being at the Bowen ranch in the morning and told how he was called following the shooting. He identified certain exhibits.

Mr. Tubbs, relation of the defendant Offley and at the time of the shooting a resident of the vicinity, was telling his story of the affair when the court adjourned.

STUTSMAN WILL HOLD BIG FAIR

Novel Features Promised For Entertainment

Jamestown, N. D., June 25.—Stutsmann county will hold a big fair here June 29, 30 and July 1.

Home talent arranged amusement, have been arranged for the fair, an innovation in county fairs, according to the fair committee's announcement.

The Lutheran college concert band and glee club, composed of 50 artists, will play. In addition, the Jamestown boys' concert band, 16-piece Windsor concert band and the 21-piece Valley City municipal band will play. The Little Country Theater players of the North Dakota Agricultural college will play "David Harum." Jamestown college players will present the "Movie Trap" and "Foot Old Jim." The Business and Professional Women's club will present "Cats and Kittens." Margaret Rigelow's dancing dolls will be another feature.

Among the home-arranged amusements are: A Trip Around the World, in which public school pupils co-operate. At the various stops bits of various countries will be shown. Eight hundred and sixty-four school pupils assist in the entertainment.

SIMS RECEIVES
REPRIMAND FOR LONDON SPEECH

Secretary of Navy Denby Formally Advises Him of His Decision

"SAME OLD THING"—SIMS

Officer Says That so Far as He Is Concerned Incident Is Closed

Washington, June 25.—A second public reprimand for breach of naval discipline stands against the record of Rear Admiral William S. Sims today as a result of his speech in London, June 7, criticizing Sinn Fein sympathizers in the United States.

Secretary Denby formally advised Admiral Sims of this decision yesterday a few hours before the officer left for Newport to resume his duties as head of the navy war college.

"I got what I deserved, the same old thing," Admiral Sims said as he left the White House where he had called upon President Harding at the moment the reprimand was being made public.

Incident Closed. He expressed regret that he had caused the administration inconvenience and added that so far as he was concerned he considered the incident closed.

The visit to the White House was one of routine custom, it was said, and so far as could be learned the reprimand was not discussed there.

Secretary Denby in his communication to Admiral Sims called the latter's action to similar action taken against him in 1911, when he assured a British audience that in event of external attack they could count on the last drop of blood and the last dollar of their kinsman's resources.

ELK LEADERS
HOLD SESSION
IN BISMARCK

Former Officers Named at Minot Meeting Are All Re-elected

VIEW SWIMMING POOL

Guests of Local Lodge at Roof Garden Luncheon—Propose Amendments

The first annual state convention of the North Dakota Elks' Association was held here today, there being present representatives from nearly all the lodges in the state.

This association was formed by a meeting called at Minot last February by District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler J. J. Coyle, at which representatives of the various lodges of North Dakota met for the purpose of organizing the association and adopting a constitution thereto.

At the meeting held today certain amendments to the constitution were adopted, looking toward perfecting it against contingencies unprovided for in the form originally adopted.

The following officers were re-elected, they having been all elected at the Minot meeting to hold until this first annual meeting:

President, C. P. Brown, Fargo; secretary-treasurer, R. W. Bussett, Valley City; trustees, for one year, J. B. Atkinson, Minot; for two years, F. A. Brown, Grand Forks; for three years, C. H. Doyon, of Doyon, a member of the Devils Lake lodge. The chaplain, sergeant-at-arms and tiler are appointive officers and the president has not yet announced his appointments for the ensuing term.

An invitation was received from Devils Lake for the next meeting but under the constitution that will be determined by the trustees.

A resolution was adopted requesting the delegates to the Grand lodge, which will be held at Los Angeles next month, to vote in favor of recognition of state associations if the question comes before them.

All the officers were present excepting F. A. Brown of Grand Forks, trustee, and Joseph Dietrich of Bismarck, tiler, who is confined to his home with neuritis.

The officers and delegates were entertained in the Bismarck lodge at luncheon at the McKenzie Roof Garden and were afterward taken for an observation tour around the city, and particularly showing them the swimming pool which is being built for the boys and girls of Bismarck under the auspices of the local Elks.

LARGE AUDIENCE
GREET DOCTORS
AT AUDITORIUM

Public Health and Preventative Measures are Discussed by Surgeons

DR. QUAIN PRESIDES

High Tribute Paid to Bismarck Hospitals and Clinic of Local Physicians

Bismarck turned out last evening to welcome the representatives of the American College of Surgeons and to hear their message. Despite the heat, the lower floor was filled and a number occupied seats in the gallery. It was a fine tribute both to the visitors and the organization they represent as well as an indication of the position Bismarck with its hospitals and surgeons holds in the Northwest.

Dr. Franklin H. Martin, secretary-general of the American College of Surgeons in talking with a representative of The Tribune paid a high tribute to the Bismarck clinic and compared it in efficiency to those held at Rochester, the Twin Cities and other points. He declared that Bismarck was to be congratulated upon her hospitals and medical fraternity.

Dr. E. P. Quain who has labored so many years in creating a clinic in this city presided at the public meeting Friday evening. His appearance as well as that of Justice A. M. Christianson was the signal for the Rotary club which sat in a body to sing the greeting song of the club, "How-Do-You-Do."

When Dr. Martin began his address he demanded the same recognition to which the Rotary members under the direction of Henry Halvorsen responded promptly.

Judge Christianson paid a high tribute to the medical profession and related statistics covering a long period indicating just what had been done by the physicians to prolong life and to add to the health and happiness of the community.

Explains Program.

Dr. Franklin H. Martin, Secretary-General of the American College of Surgeons spoke briefly regarding the organization and explained how its ideals and purposes were all directed toward the benefit of the public. The improvement of surgery and of hospitals, Dr. Martin declared is largely due to the higher ideals and better training of the modern surgery.

In an address illustrated by stereoscopic slides, Dr. Richard R. Smith, of Grand Rapids, showed the contrast between the well developed women and the women of frail and delicate physique. He pointed out that the slender girl by the proper diet and out-door exercise can develop into a healthy woman.

Dr. Jabez N. Jackson, of Kansas City, pointed out great danger to women in cancer of the breast. He made a strong plea for prompt physical examination in all cases where this disease was suspected, and pointed out the hopelessness of delay.

Takes Early Examination.

The Surgeon and the Public, was the title of the address delivered by Dr. A. T. Mann, Assistant Professor of Surgery at the University of Minnesota Medical School. Dr. Mann pointed out that modern surgery was based on scientific knowledge. Many causes of death in times passed have been discovered, which makes surgery based on scientific knowledge a great benefactor in the saving of lives. Dr. Mann showed the moral obligation which the surgeon owes to the community, and explained how the American College of Surgeons is seeking to raise the level of surgical service throughout the country.

Gives Resume.

G. S. Dalgety, Alumni Executive Secretary of Northwestern University, made a splendid resume of the evening's talk. Speaking from the laymen's view point he stressed the fact that scientific medicine was seeking not to glorify itself, but to render greater service to the public.

Today's session of the meeting included clinics at the two hospitals in the morning, a luncheon at the Bismarck hospital, followed by a scientific meeting at the McKenzie hotel in the afternoon. The annual business meeting of the section will close the session and the sixty surgeons registered for the meeting will leave tonight for their homes in all parts of the state.

Hold Banquet.

The banquet at the McKenzie Roof Garden Friday evening was well attended. Dr. V. J. LaRose presided and introduced Dr. Martin, who told of his trip to South America with Dr. W. J. Mayo. He declared that in many respects South America was ahead of North America. He found excellent clinics and well organized hospitals. The trip was made to enlist the leading surgeons of South America in the American College.

Following a brief social time, the physicians went in a body to the public meeting.

VETERAN LABOR
LEADER VICTOR
OVER J. L. LEWIS

Big Demonstration Greeted Mention of Gompers Name at Convention

LEWIS IS ALSO CHEERED

First Serious Opposition of Gompers in Many Years For Post

Denver, June 25.—Samuel Gompers, veteran leader of organized labor, again was elected president of the American Federation of Labor in the annual convention here. Mr. Gompers defeated John L. Lewis for the post. It was the first serious opposition offered to Mr. Gompers in many years.

The vote was 25,022 to 12,324. Only one of the largest organizations cast a vote solid for Lewis—the machinists' union and the United Brotherhood of Carpenters.

The miners' delegation split their vote, giving Gompers 1,96 and Lewis 2,132. President Lewis declined to vote the 33 votes he held.

The railroad vote, which had been claimed almost solidly by Lewis supporters, split. The two largest unions—the electrical workers and the railway car men—cast their entire vote to Gompers.

Commends Veteran.

Mr. Perkins commended the veteran labor leader as a man "with wonderful intuition and faith of matchless knowledge, fearless courage; who took a vote of sand and made it the strongest and most formidable economic movement in the entire world."

"Under his fearless leadership you have no cause for fear from the open shop movement and other hostile drives," declared the speaker, adding: "No man in the United States is more loved and abused than the president of the American Federation of Labor. Why? Because this man has accomplished something. He has shown incomparable and wonderful ability and constructive force."

Gompers' Statement. "I am sure that my election will bring no comfort to Gary or to Hearst," said President Gompers in responding to cries from delegates for a speech.

"This is a demonstration to the whole world," he added, "that a chain of newspapers owned by a multi-millionaire with his mud-slinging machine cannot control the American Federation of Labor."

The first name submitted as candidate for President Samuel Gompers, who was nominated in an editorial speech by George Perkins, of Chicago, president of the Cigarmakers' Union. A demonstration of several minutes duration greeted the announcement of Mr. Gompers' name by Mr. Perkins at the close of his address. A number of delegates jumped to their feet and cheered while scores of others remained quietly in their seats averting a stampede in behalf of the veteran labor leader.

When William Green, secretary of the United Mine Workers, mounted the platform to nominate John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, he was given an enthusiastic ovation.

Convention in Uproar. The convention in its first night session last night, disposed of the question of future relations with the international federation of trades unions and the recognition of the Russian soviet government.

Almost riotous scenes marked both actions of the convention which upheld the action of the executive council in severing relations with the European labor movement and in condemning the Russian soviet government. Defenders on both the international federation and the Russian soviet were annoyed by speaking and rattling of chairs and jostling of chairs.

GETS YEAR FOR PRISON ESCAPE

W. J. Hogan, former convict, was sentenced to the state prison for one year today on his plea of guilty to a charge of escaping from the penitentiary. It is the first time in years that such a case has been brought into district court.

Hogan was convicted in Nelson county and sentenced to prison. After serving several months he escaped and his attorney said he served five extra months as a result.

Judge Nussle asked him what prompted him to escape.

The guard was the cause of it, said Hogan. "He wasn't watching. I was on the fence and he knew that it was an offense to escape from prison. He was a felon and suggested it would be well for all the prisoners at the penitentiary to understand it."

Hogan was arrested two months ago just after his sentence expired. Ward on Star preferred the charge of escaping.

BLACK SOX IN DEFEAT BEFORE LOCAL ATTACK

Hitting of Bismarck Players Give Victory Over Calgary Colored Team

PLAYING AGAIN AT 6:30

Bismarck's fast-going ball club gave the Calgary Black Sox a drubbing in a twilight game witnessed by a large crowd. The score was 10 to 5.

The two teams play again at 6:30 o'clock this evening, and the Black Sox are out to cop the second and last contest of the series. Today's game is the last to be played in Bismarck for several days, as the team goes to Dickinson tomorrow for Sunday and Monday games.

Local hitters started slugging in the first inning, and got a big jump. Swartz, first man up, hit safely and Andler followed with a two-base drive. Harper walked. Collins was hit by pitcher. Ellis few out to center. Anderson struck out. Higge, Mandan player with Bismarck, got a two-bagger, scoring three men. When the inning ended Bismarck had four runs.

The game was a free hitting contest throughout, on Bismarck's part. A couple of fast double plays were made, one of them by the Black Sox, Anderson to Dunkins and the other Harper to Andler.

"Buck" Taylor held the Black Sox, except that in the seventh inning they started a rally which threatened to become dangerous, scoring four runs. Two hits, coupled with three errors gave them their runs. He had 13 strike-outs.

Mel Anderson came back in the seventh and hit a drive to the fence in right-center for a home run, one of the longest hits of the season.

STEELE BASEBALL TEAM WINNER IN 13-INNING GAME

Steele, N. D., June 24.—The Steele Baseball club, under the management of F. I. Bailey, defeated the Dawson Baseball club on their grounds 2 to 1 on Monday. The game went 13 innings before Steele pushed over the winning run.

Dawson secured the fast Braddock pitcher, Roscoe Wurm, to twirl this game and he was very effective throughout the game. Powell, the farmer boy who has been fast coming to the front the past three years, was on the mound for Steele and pitched regular league ball. Both Wurm and Powell worked the entire 13 innings.

Score by innings:

PASS OR PITCH TO BIG HITTER HARD QUESTION

Fans Like to See Pitchers Put 'em Over to Babe Ruth It Is Costly

OTHER DOPE ON SPORTS

While it is good sportsmanship to pitch to Babe Ruth, with men on the bases it is poor strategy.

No less a strategist than Ty Cobb made such a blunder when Bambino got his 18th homer, scored two men ahead of him, tied the score and made it possible for the Yanks to win out in the ninth.

Babe takes full advantage of these tactical errors.

He so seldom is given a chance to hit when runners are on the paths that he tries a little harder on such occasions.

VARDON IS GREATEST

The British open golf title won't be won without a struggle.

England's old guard—Vardon, Braid and Taylor—has won 18 out of the last 20 British open titles.

Vardon is probably the greatest of the three.

He played wonderful golf here on strange courses last summer.

On his own links Vardon should be practically unbeatable.

K. O. CHAMPS O. K.

Knockouts may be cruel, but the public demands them from champions.

Dempsey let Bill Brennan linger nearly 12 rounds before he gave him the carom wallop.

The public razed the champion because he didn't do it earlier in the game.

Benny Leonard failed to give the referee a job of counting out Rocky Kansas.

More razz!

A champion nowadays has to be K. O. to be O. K.

OLYMPIAN HOSPITALITY.

Parisians plan elaborate entertainment for athletes in the 1924 Olympic games.

Twenty million francs have been donated—half by the government and half by the city.

The flying field, near Issy, made famous during the war, will be the scene of the Olympian contests.

Three mammoth arenas—one seating 106,000 and the other two 50,000 each—will be built.

MUFFLED COLLEGE BOUT.

Intercollegiate boxing may soon rival football.

The college boys like to put on the gloves. Their college mates—both sexes—are quick to make heroes out of fighters who wear their school colors.

Lieutenant Commander Richardson, president of the Intercollegiate Boxing Association, predicts that boxing will become a major college sport.

Ethics of college boxing doesn't permit rooting during the bouts.

The rooters must make all their noise between rounds.

NAVY'S LUCKY SHELL.

The navy crew, Olympic champions, believe in lucky shells.

They'll row in the Poughkeepsie regatta, June 22, in the same shell in which they won Olympic honors.

Their coach, Dick Gleason, thinks it will help his men psychologically in the supreme test.

Education cuts no ice in a case like this. Jack Dempsey insists on wearing "lucky" shoes in his fights. Babe Ruth likes his old bat best.

VALUE OF LEGS.

Backers of Georges Carpentier point to the fact that he has the best pair of legs in the world.

Legs are worth more to a boxer than even to a chorus girl.

If his supporters can't stand the gaff the chie is going to get in the way of a leg.

Tex Rickard predicted defeat for Jess Willard at Toledo because the giant hadn't done enough road work to condition his legs.

Jack Dempsey isn't neglecting to train his legs for his fight with Carpentier.

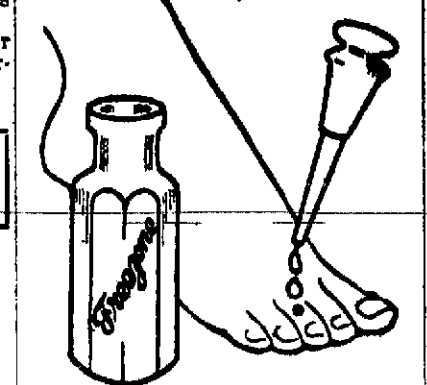

He does more road work than the Frenchman.

Dope the answer yourself.

Babe Ruth now plans to make a baseball fan out of the judge who threw him in the hoosegow for speeding.

CORNS

Lift Off with Fingers

Doesn't hurt a bit! Drop a little "Freezone" on an aching corn. Instantly that corn stops hurting; then shortly you lift it right off with fingers. Truly!

Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of "Freezone" for a few cents, sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the calluses, without soreness or irritation.

COPS TILDEN'S STYLE

VINCENT RICHARDS—IN ACTION AND WITH HIS RACKETS.

A lad of 18 summers may be Bill Tilden's running mate in the doubles championships for the Davis Cup matches this fall.

He is Vincent Richards—the boy wonder of the courts.

When Richards was but 16 he had won five national tennis titles.

In matches this spring he is playing his way to the top over the chief stars in the United States.

He has often paired with Tilden—the recognized greatest player in the world.

They know each other's game. The youngster has learned much from the master, Tilden.

Tilden's chief delight is in teaching youngsters. Anything that boosts tennis Big Bill is for.

Teams will come from all parts of the world for the Davis Cup matches—Europe, Asia, South America and Australia.

Competing teams will be reimbursed so far as is possible from the receipts from the matches.

It is expected that crowds of from 10,000 to 15,000 will daily witness the preliminary and challenge round at Forest Hills, N. Y.

The challenge match will not be played until Sept. 2.

TWO MORE WANT TO CROSS BATS WITH THE ELKS

Only Way Out, Manager Says, is to Play 'em all at Once

NOW ARRANGING DATES

"We'll play 'em at once."

This is what H. J. Woodmansee, manager of the Elks baseball team said today when challenges began to pour in at a rapid rate. After the Odd Fellows challenge came one from the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks and from the Lions club. Other challenges were hurled verbally but can not be considered until they are in black and white.

The railway clerks wrote:

Yo Manager,
Elks Ball Club,
Bismarck, N. D.
Dear Sir:
Notice by last evening's Bismarck

Tribune, that you as the manager of the Elks Baseball club challenge all fraternal and other societies, but let me state right here that you overlooked mentioning the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks.

This Brotherhood, no doubt, you think will look easy. But we as a body do hereby challenge you and your outfit, letting you name the date and place.

For your information the batteries as we have lined our players up will be R. L. Walton, playing close to home plate, and Mr. J. A. Youngman, on the mound. Dad Mercier, as he is one of our fastest, will play the well known position of shortstop.

We have no objection to your selling pop in the grandstand, providing there are no holes in the chicken wire.

The Brotherhood of Railway Clerks.

The following challenge came from the Lions club:

Mr. H. Woodmansee,
Manager, Baseball Team,
Bismarck, North Dakota.
Dear Mr. Woodmansee:

Replying to your challenge made in last night's Tribune, will say that the Lions club will be "tickled to death" to take your Elks team on for the benefit of the swimming pool fund. If you have already received a challenge from some other organization, we challenge the winners, game to be played some time in the next ten days.

Very truly yours,
H. STEGNER,
President and Manager of the Lions Baseball Team.

P. S. We feel confident of winning as we have Overt Olson to throw for us and his reputation in years past has been known all over the State.

H. L. S.

The time for the game has not been set. It may be that the Elks team will take on the Odd Fellows Sunday evening, the proceeds to go to the swimming pool fund.

More Acres per Hour—that is what Wallis World's Champion Tractor, means to Northwest farmers, more production at less cost. Feature by feature the Wallis invites inspection. The patented U-frame of one piece boiler steel makes possible light construction and enables the Wallis to deliver the maximum of power at the draw bar. Light weight combined with brute strength is originally and typically Wallis construction. The Wallis motor has the greatest draw-bar horse power for its piston displacement of any successful tractor motor on the market. Its economical performance is unequalled by any other tractor of any size, weight or power.

For three generations the builders of the Wallis Tractor have served the American farmer. The quality ideals of the Company's founder, Jerome I. Case, and the service ideals of the Company's president, H. M. Wallis, find expression today in the proved stamina of the Wallis Tractor—the untiring efficiency that won and holds world-wide championship honors.

70 PER CENT OF CHILD LABOR ON THE FARMS

Many Not Getting Educational and Recreational Advantages They Need

Milwaukee, Wis., June 25.—Seventy per cent of America's child laborers are found in rural occupations, Dr. Owen R. Lovejoy, General Secretary of the National Child Labor Committee, told the committee's sixteenth annual conference here tonight.

"The other day," he said, "we read that some men had formed a $100,000,000 organization to help the farmers plan of co-operative marketing, whereby they could hold their crops for a good market. The National Child Labor Committee has also a $100,000,000 proposition to help the farmers hold their best crop, not for any market, but for himself and the old homestead. By a conservative estimate it is worth at least $100.00 to his day to give a child a chance to play, develop and go to school. There are more than a million country children who are not getting that chance today."

"Here," declared Dr. Lovejoy, "is an opportunity for investment where there is no possibility of losing. The whole of America will gain."

Dr. Lovejoy asserted that five thousand children between the ages of 6 and 15 are engaged in raising beet in Colorado alone, according to an investigation conducted by his committee. In Oklahoma children as young as five are picking cotton regularly, while the average daily attendance at school is only 57.2 of the enrollment. "Similar conditions exist in the best fields of Michigan, the tobacco fields of Kentucky and Colorado, the onion fields of Ohio and the wheat belt of Dakota," he said.

"Neither federal nor state laws give these children any protection," declared Dr. Lovejoy, "except that which is afforded by compulsory school attendance laws, and these are nowhere well enforced in the country places. With the growing congestion of the demand on the country for its necessities and yet the best potential farmers are flocking to the city. You cannot," he said emphatically, "keep boys and girls on the farm by depriving them of the play and social life they instinctively crave. It is all right for children to work, but not to be worked at the expense of health, play, schooling and a free, fighting chance."

"Children are the greatest assets of the nation. We cannot spend our assets and have them too. Child welfare, therefore, is the best investment we can make—an investment that makes boys and girls, when they mature, better producers, better consumers and better, more intelligent citizens. The Child Labor Committee challenges you to this investment."

"The remedy lies with the family and the community rather than with legislatures and prohibitory laws," he said.

sworn falsely. Mr. LeSueur objected on the ground that the copies of the journal produced, which Mr. Hall said were brought to him daily by pages, were not properly authenticated. Mr. Weeks said he expected the secretary of state to produce the authenticated journal but Mr. Hall informed him that the addition of voluminous investigation testimony in the last day's journal made it a book of about 1,000 pages and it was not yet available. Judge Nussle held that the journals produced by Mr. Hall were not sufficient on which to base the facts Mr. Weeks sought to establish, and adjourned court until this morning so that the attorney might pursue a new method.

GALLI-CURCI AND HUSBAND ON HONEYMOON

St. Louis Park, Minn., June 23.—Galli-Curci has a gingham dress and a $350,000 annual income.

She's wearing one and banking the other!

The famous songbird and her husband, Homer Samuels, composer and accompanist, are spending their honeymoon at his home in this suburb, just outside of Minneapolis.

"This is the life," says the bride. And down on her hands and knees in the garden, she chases the elusive caterpillar, and now and then picks a ripe, red strawberry.

"Of course, Homer can't understand why I spend so much time out in the hot sun. But he would play almost as long on the tennis court and think nothing of it."

And then a song comes from a distant fir tree.

"I have not heard such beautiful songbirds, even in my native land," she says. "I have learned to love the one you call the oriole. And there is the little thrush back of the garage that sings so exquisitely."

"Sometimes I hope I can spend all my time here with my husband and the birds and flowers. Those will be wonderful days!"

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

"Oh, sh-sh-shuck!" roared Tag Tiger, sneezing his head off, nearly. "I did not come here to sneeze. I came here to get a nice tiger's tail for my dinner. And he sneezed again. I wonder what that is that's tickling my nose so, and making the water run out of my eyes."

Well, the old fellow kept on sneezing so hard you know, it was the pepper-dust (Pipity-Flap) and the twins had scattered around that finally he got tired and wandered away. "I'll leave Gazy Gazelle for another meal, he'll be all right, and I'll go and hunt up Woody Wart-Hog. He's a little better looking than his cousin, Porky Pig. He's a real good looking fellow. I'll just hunt around outside his house and see if he's at home. So old Tag sneezed like any thing."

Ke-choo! he went again suddenly, louder than before. Indeed the jungle echoed with it for miles. It was a good thing that he didn't hear all the giggling that was going on behind all the stores of the jungle. "At things. He would have been madder than ever, and dear knows, he was getting mad enough without that. He sneezed and sneezed and the tears rolled from his eyes and down his cheeks, until, if Woody Wart-Hog had been under his very nose, he never would have seen him at all.

Every minute he was getting hungrier, and you know how it would be if all you were offered for dinner was some pepper dust. You wouldn't be very happy, would you? But then, Tag didn't deserve to be happy, did he? He didn't deserve the way he did 'it' all.

"I'll go and see if Lep Leopard is to be found," said he. "He's tough, but he's good."

Pipity-Flap and the twins followed softly.

MASONS IN HISTORIC EVENT

Pembina, N. D., June 25.—One of the most important Masonic events in North Dakota in recent years was held here Tuesday afternoon and evening when the Grand Lodge, A. F. & A. M. of North Dakota, the Grand Lodge of Manitoba, and representatives of the Grand Lodges of Minnesota and Iowa joined in the services in unveiling and dedicating of a marker and tablet upon the site of the quartermaster's building of Hatch's old battalion.

This building housed the first meeting of Masons in North Dakota which took place in 1864. The lodge was a military lodge established under a dispensation from the then Grand Master of Minnesota and was known as Northern Lights Lodge. The lodge was later transferred to old Fort Gary, now Winnipeg. The site was purchased by the Grand Lodge of North Dakota under authority granted at the Grand Lodge session which was held in Fargo last year.

The special train bearing the Grand Lodge officers and members of the Grand Lodge of North Dakota and the members of the "one" at Fort Gary, Drayton and Grafton arrived at 10 P. M. immediately thereon the special train from Winnipeg arrived with the Grand Lodge officers and constituent lodges of Manitoba.

ASK Your Grocer For Hampty Dumpty Bread Produced by BARKER BAKERY

A line of march was formed under the direction of Daniel H. Sprague of Grafton as marshal. At the head of the column color bearers carried the Union Jack and the Stars and Stripes, followed by the Ken Temple band of Grand Forks. The Grand Lodge officers of North Dakota, past Grand Masters of the state and visiting officials followed. The other bodies lined up as follows: Killie band from Winnipeg, Canadian Lodges, Grand Lodge members of North Dakota and North Dakota constituent lodges.

More than 1,500 Masons were in line. The parade was reviewed by Grand Master Allan V. Haig, of North Dakota, Grand Master Frederick E. Jenkins, of Minnesota, and Past Grand Master R. S. Thompson of Manitoba. "America" and "O Save the King" were sung at the opening of the services. Invocation was said by Bishop John Pontyaz Tyle of Fargo, Grand Chaplain of the Grand Lodge of North Dakota.

The original dispensation given by the Grand Lodge of Minnesota for the establishment of the old military lodge was then read followed by addresses by Frederick E. Jenkins, Grand Master of Minnesota, and John H. Schumaker, Past Grand Master of Iowa, R. S. Thompson, Past Grand Master of Manitoba.

A heavy rain set in which began while the services were in progress and caused the shortening of the program and the final service of unveiling the tablet was dispensed with.

A banquet was served to the officers of the Grand Lodge of North Dakota and the visiting Grand Lodge officers following the services. The special train for the Forks left at 9 P. M.

SLOPE PIONEER PASSES AWAY

Captain Samuel Miller Barry of Napoleon died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Frank (Lydia Barry) Fisher, of Crystal Springs, Stutsman County. Captain Barry suffered from a paralytic stroke on the eleventh of June, and this was the immediate cause of his death.

The remains reached Napoleon via Bismarck and were met at the station by the pallbearers, an escort of the American Legion and a delegation of the Women's Auxiliary. They were taken directly to the Methodist church where at 3 p. m. services were conducted by Rev. F. L. Greene of Ashley.

Captain Samuel Miller Barry was born March 25, 1841, near Suiderville, Pennsylvania. He responded to President Lincoln's first call for volunteers in the Civil War, and was stationed under General Patterson with the army of the Shenandoah. After his first year he re-enlisted and was made a second lieutenant of the company later becoming captain.

In 1866 he was married to Lydia H. Nagle of near Gouldsburg, Penn. Two sons, Lewis and Francis were the result of this union, the latter having died at the age of two years. In 1870 Mrs. Barry died. In 1895 Lewis was killed by the explosion of a threshing machine.

In 1874 Captain Barry was united in marriage with Miss Christina Forkel of Archdale, Penn. The children born to this couple were Lydia, now Mrs. Frank Fisher of Crystal Springs; Thersa, now Mrs. Frank Barnes of Casselton; Jennie who died in 1893; Charlotte, who died in 1899; Catherine, who died in 1905; Grover who made the supreme sacrifice Nov. 11, 1917, in action with the Canadians against the Germans; Agnes, who died in 1914, and Merle, who makes her home with her sister, Mrs. Frank Fisher of Crystal Springs.

Capt. Barry has faced many hardships. The first years of trying to get crops were utter failures and when they tried to raise potatoes the seed froze. They were forced to sell buffalo bones for $10 a ton in order to be able to buy more seed. Mrs. Barry and daughters joined the captain in 1866.

In 1889 he became county assessor but found it an unprofitable position. In 1898 he was one of the directors of the Foster School District and in 1895 he became county commissioner of the first district and served four years.

His wife died at Napoleon on May 8, 1915. Since then he has made his home with his daughters.

The remains were interred in the Barry family block in the Napoleon cemetery.

Wounded by the explosion of a high explosive shell in the Vosges mountains, Private R. G. Quehl, 318th Engineers, lay on a hard cot in a hospital and wondered about his chances of getting home. He recovered, however, went into action, and on November 2, was again wounded.

Brought back to America and placed in the best hospital at Camp Lewis, Wash., Quehl worked out the details for a bronze memorial tablet. While awaiting his discharge he drew up the plans and in civilian life again, he has obtained a patent on an invention which he calls the individual war memorial.

It is a plaque of bronze with the figure of a private in war uniform. Around the plaque in raised letters are the names of the allied countries. A plate to be engraved with the service record is in the center. Orders are pouring in so rapidly that he has been forced to enlarge his working force.

The Lure of the Great Unknown

The great cities attracted thousands of farm youths during the past years of war prosperity. This movement from the farm to the city steadily increased during the past five years, but now the tide has definitely turned and these same young men are returning to the farms.

On the farm, the great outdoors builds up a robust manhood and gives plenty of opportunity to work hard and save up enough to buy a farm and live an independent life.

American Legion Notes

"There is not the least doubt in my mind that if it had not been for the determined stand of the American Legion, Zimmer and I would still be in prison," writes "Sergeant" Neff, who with Sergeant Zimmer was arrested by the Germans following an attempt to capture Grover Cleveland Bergdahl, notorious slacker. "The American Legion came to my aid during one of my darkest hours, and it demonstrated by its unwavering loyalty toward a comrade that its sublime aspirations and lofty ideals concerning comradeship are a living truth."

Men entitled to navy retainer pay and not receiving it should communicate with the navy allotment officer, navy retainer pay section, Navy department, Washington, D. C., according to the American Legion Weekly. Applicants should give the following data: Full name, date of enrollment, rating and class in which enrolled, present address, present rating, number of retainer pay checks received (if any) and amount of each, date of release from active duty, date of discharge from reserves.

One of the largest single cash contributions for the benefit of disabled ex-service men has been received by the St. Louis city central executive committee of the American Legion. The amount was $5,000, "without a string to it," given by Mrs. Newton L. G. Wilson, wealthy philanthropist of the city. The fund will be used exclusively to assist disabled men in obtaining just compensation and for the relief of their dependents.

American Legion posts in Minnesota are having a lively controversy as to which one has the oldest Legionnaire on its rolls. Redwood Falls presented Dr. Gibson, seventy-two years old, who served with the medical corps at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Ind., and held the record until Kimball post introduced Adam Brower, seventy-six years old, and Joe Mason, who admits eighty-six years and a highly prized membership in the Legion.

As a result of a fight waged on the floor of congress by Representative Hamilton Fish, Jr., of New York, a prominent American Legion worker, relatives of aliens who served in the American army, navy and marine corps during the World war are entitled to preferred right of entry into the United States in the three-percent immigration to be allowed during the next year under the immigration bill.

Members of the American Legion in St. Paul, Minn., cast their bread upon the waters and it was returned a hundredfold. Last spring they gave assistance to a needy man. When the Legion men were selling theater tickets for a benefit performance for unemployed veterans the ex-service man sold 500 tickets in two days. As a result, 150 men were sent out on job the following day.

A vigorous campaign waged by the American Legion against disloyal activities of the Industrial Workers of the World is responsible for the stabling of a Legion worker by an I. W. W. fanatic, according to reports received at Legion national headquarters from Pocatello, Idaho. True to form, the I. W. W. member attacked the Legion man in a dark alley, stabbing him in the back.

For the prompt relief of disabled and unemployed ex-service men of Chicago, Theodore Roosevelt post of the American Legion staged a stag party, at which Judge K. M. Landis was a guest. Battling Nelson was in charge of the athletic program, the band of the Great Lakes naval training station provided music and stage stars contributed their services to a midnight frolic.

Commuters and street car fans of New Orleans may have to walk when the American Legion meets. Employees of the New Orleans Railway and Light company have formed a post of the Legion. The street railway men are enthusiastic members of their post and have promised to attend meetings even if they have to bring along their private cars.

An American Legion speaker has been asked to explain the aims and purposes of the organization at the annual labor picnic to be held June 18 in Kansas City, Kan. The action, which followed a conference with the mayor of the city, is intended to clear up any misunderstandings which radical elements may have fostered in the ranks of labor organizations.

Only men who were in the service during the World war will be admitted to a hotel being erected by the Portland, Ore., post of the American Legion. The post is enlarging and remodeling upper floors of its large clubhouse to accommodate 70 men.

Idaho American Legion members opened their state service and membership campaign with prayers in almost every church in the state.

Store window posters and street car signs aided Summit post of the American Legion at Akron, O., during a membership campaign.

MISS ZONA GALE

PRIZE-WINNING AUTHOR TO CHANGE HER STYLE

By Newspaper Enterprise.
Portage, Wis., June 25.—Zona Gale, author of the prize-winning novel, "Miss Lulu Bett," attributes much of her success to the birds.

Miss Gale watches the squirrels play up and down the trunk of the old tree directly under the window; sees the blue birds gathering string and bits of grass for their nests in a bird house which crowns a stump; and watches the flickers and woodpeckers.

Miss Gale was awarded the Pulitzer prize of $1,000 for the original play of the year, "Miss Lulu Bett," which, it is said, best presents the potential value of the stage in raising the standard of good morals, good taste and good manners.

She recently returned from New York and will spend her summer at Portage, where she is writing another new book.

Almost a dozen novels and scores of short stories which have been published in a book form, have been written by Miss Gale in her Portage home. After graduation from the University of Wisconsin in 1895, she worked on staffs of Milwaukee papers, and finally went to New York, where she became a contributor to newspapers and magazines.

Her first book, "Romance Island," was published in 1896, and since then many volumes have been issued.

Miss Gale has recently attempted a change in her method of writing.

"In this new story," she said, "I have used the characters without sentimentality and without propaganda. In the older style of writing, I believe that writers have allowed too much of sentiment and propaganda in the use of characters. This story attempts to eliminate that fault."

The Rex had a big house last night for the vaudeville offering of three Marcus Lowe Acts from Minneapolis. "McConnell and Austin" are an exceptionally good bicycle act doing many new and novel stunts, while Harry Sykes gets lots of laughs with a number of new gags and clever topical songs. The Three McKenna Sisters who finish the show is a classy girl act. Mack Sennett's clever comedy featuring Charlie Chaplin, Mable Normand, Marie Dressler, Chester Conklin and Mack Swain is a perfect whirlwind of laugh provoking scenes. As an additional feature Charles Hutchinson is seen in some hair raising stunts in the feature the "Double Adventure."

The Time-Saver The Dollar-Saver The Effort-Saver

Minutes, money and motion are running a race to see which is the most valuable.

Mr. Common People, multiplied by many millions, is on the lookout for ways to save all three.

Read the advertising columns of your daily newspaper. Here are the country's advertised products—worthy goods—up for inspection.

You may depend upon them as good goods; for, if they didn't "pass muster" they would not continue to enjoy popularity. The public would not buy them and the newspapers would not take their advertising, even if they had the money to spend for it.

Choosing merchandise through newspaper advertising is buying reduced to an efficiency basis.

When you go to your merchant or 'phone for goods to be delivered there need be no delay or indecision as in the olden days. You buy with your mind made up as to the worth of goods that face the spotlight of public scrutiny and are not found faulty.

Social and Personal

WAR MOTHERS WILL AID WELFARE WORK

Mrs. Robert Orr, war mother, of the Ft. Lincoln Chapter, returned from Lisbon, where she attended the state meeting of the North Dakota war mothers. Mrs. Orr says the war mothers had a most successful meeting and she says that Lisbon certainly lived up to its enviable reputation for hospitality.

Kenmare was chosen as the meeting place for 1922. The Fargo Commercial club also sent an invitation which was declined with regrets as the invitation from Kenmare had been received first.

In accordance with the plan followed by the national organization, the officers elected last year will hold over for another year. Mrs. A. E. Jones of Lisbon holds the position of state war mother, or president; Mrs. Arthur C. McLane of Kenmare, first vice president; Mrs. W. D. McClinck of Rugby, second vice president; Mrs. W. C. Cashmann of Bismarck, recording secretary; Mrs. Frank Smith of Lisbon, corresponding secretary; Mrs. C. C. Manning of Sheyenne, treasurer; Mrs. E. B. Page of Leeds, historian; Mrs. O. C. Surmgaard of Devils Lake, E. A. Tostevin of Mandan and O. W. Roberts of Bismarck, auditors.

Resolutions.

Resolutions adopted by the convention follow:

"Be It Resolved, That we, the War Mothers of North Dakota, extend in writing a resolution of sympathy to the family of Commander Galbraith and also to the headquarters of the American Legion.

"That we, the visiting War Mothers regret the unavoidable absence of War Mother, Mrs. Crocker of Grace Lorraine chapter.

"Be It Further Resolved, That we endorse the work of the Y. W. C. A. toward assistance to young girls traveling alone.

"That we endorse the work of Florence Critchenden home.

"That we endorse the Smith-Towner bill.

Endorse Disarmament.

"That we endorse the idea of world disarmament.

"Be It Further Resolved, That we, the War Mothers of North Dakota, endorse and promise support to the statewide work of Mrs. Charles E. Jones of Lisbon, for the crippled children of our state.

"Be It Further Resolved, That our heartfelt thanks be extended to Grace Lorraine chapter of Lisbon for their hospitality, entertainment and many courtesies, to the auxiliary for their delightful tea and to the Florence Kimball post, American Legion, for the use of their club rooms.

"And Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of the resolutions be incorporated in the minutes of this meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

"Mrs. E. T. Danielson, Enderlin,

"Mrs. Lila Dollahan, Kenmare,

"Mrs. W. W. Minnick, Rugby,

"Mrs. A. G. Evans, Lisbon.

Social affairs during the convention included a banquet Wednesday noon at the Bradford hotel, a tea given by the American Legion, an automobile ride, and a launch ride.

RIGHT AND WRONG IN DRESS

This shows the proper (left) and the improper (right) way to dress. On the right the gray hat (1) and the gray dress (4) only accentuate the sallowness of face, and the light hair (2). The V-neck (3) and the narrow belt (5) with the vertical lines of the fringe trimming (6) emphasize the thinness of the body. The figure on the left uses a rounded collar (1) of a dark material setting off the light complexion. The broad belt (2) gives the appearance of added weight to the figure while the dress has the correct balance (3) that all dresses should have.

Sleep is most important to your baby and he sure that if you must awaken him, you do it in such a way

PEASANT'S BODICE IN FAVOR

Just because you wear a peasant's bodice doesn't mean you belong to the soil. Indeed the lovely blue silk frock with its chiffon collar and cuffs worn by Betty Carpenter in Paramount pictures wouldn't be very serviceable for a woman with a hoe. Shirred baby ribbons which form flower rosettes decorate the skirt. The burnt-orange hat, matching the collar and flowers on the frock, is trimmed with lilies of the valley. The attractive peasant's bodice is in high favor this summer.

that it will not startle him. It is better to let the child sleep until it awakens naturally.

CARD OF THANKS.

Mr. A. S. Hoffman and family wish to thank all the friends who have extended sympathy and rendered assistance during the illness, and since the death of wife and mother.

MRS. A. S. HOFFMAN DIES SUDDENLY

In the death of Mrs. A. S. Hoffman which occurred yesterday evening at one of the hospitals after a two weeks' illness following an operation, Bismarck loses one of its most highly esteemed and best beloved women. Although a very quiet and retiring disposition, her devotion to high ideals and her willingness to serve gave her a large measure of prominence in church and philanthropic work. She was president of the local W. C. T. U. and one of the leading spirits in all the work of McCabe Methodist Episcopal church. All who knew her, loved her. Her gracious Christian life was a benediction to all who came within the circle of its influence. Her loss is keenly felt.

A brief service was held today, conducted by her pastor, Rev. G. H. Quigley. Mr. Hoffman left with her body on the afternoon train for Littleton, Iowa, near Oelwein, where burial will take place Monday afternoon in the presence of relatives and friends who have known Mrs. Hoffman from childhood. A suitable memorial service will be held in McCabe church on the return of Mr. Hoffman.

In addition to an aged mother and other relatives in Iowa, she is survived by her husband, her daughters, Mrs. Morris Dollens of Waverly, Indiana, Gertrude, at home, and her son, Charles. These have the sympathy of a host of friends.

S. DAK. WOMAN DIES IN CITY

Mrs. Mathelina Ottenbacher, of Herreid, S. D., died here. The deceased was 33 years old and was born in Russia. Christian Ottenbacher, the husband of the deceased, will take the remains to Herreid, S. D., where funeral services will be held.

POETS' CORNER

FANCY VERNON REALITY.
(Florence Berner.)

When I am lost in solitude,
I hear the piping notes of Pan
Come stealing softly through the wood;

And I can almost hear the tread
Of fairy footsteps on the green,
As flitting through the moonlight's beam,
They dance there as no mortal can.

Where'er I hear the sighing wind,
As he goes moaning through the land,
This earth is left far, far behind:
Like to the Phoenix of fair Greece,
From earthly ashes I arise,
To seek communion in the skies
While with a countenance sublime,
An angel guides me by the hand.

Where'er I hear the ocean roar,
Upon his shore in turbulence,
My soul encounters stern defeat:
No more I soar with fervent breast,
To unknown heights of peace and rest
But life, stern, real omnipotent
Commands my soul to penitence.

These fashions come from Paris. It does not matter whether you are going in for the high Spanish headdress or are wearing your hair in the low roll, the comb is the thing that fashion decrees. Combs are being shown in all sizes and shapes, the bigger the better. The immense comb shown in the top picture is of ornate design and is used by fashionable Paris to top off an elaborate coiffure. The wide comb in the lower picture is worn in France with the simple bun, the hair being smoothly combed back from the forehead.

THE WAR MOTHERS

Americanization like charity must begin in the home and the best agents to carry on the important work are the war mothers whose devotion to duty during the world war and since the armistice has written their names high on the nation's roll of honor.

A convention of these devoted patriotic women has just closed at Lisbon and the resolutions adopted show that the war mothers of the state will continue their efforts for a better type of citizenship.

They naturally are committed to a program of safe and sane disarmament—no foolish pacifists are these sturdy women who willingly gave up their loved ones in the defense of national honor and the protection of the oppressed.

The sacrifices they made have brought a noble band of women into harmonious action for the betterment of living conditions in the state. Work among crippled children has been endorsed and the girl welfare movement through the Y. W. C. A. and allied organizations are to have the vigorous support of these brave women, many of whose sons today lie in Flanders' field.

May success crown their every effort as it did their earnest work and fervent prayers during the dark days when the sinister hosts of autocracy were being crushed that a better civilization might be conceived.

All honor and glory to the War Mothers of North Dakota.

PITTY KIDS!

"Social pressure"—too many movies, too many parties, late hours, nervous excitement generally—are chief causes of fatigue and malnutrition among children, Dr. Veeder, of St. Louis, tells the American Medical Association.

City conditions are a strain on children. It's the lucky youth whose parents were wise and firm enough to send him to bed early and regularly when he was a child.

SILVER DOLLARS

The United States Mint is coining silver dollars for the first time in seven years.

Silver dollars are heavy in the pocket, but cleaner than paper money.

Some paper money is so dirty few persons would pocket it if it were anything but money. Most persons are too glad to get any sort of good money to complain about its looks, its weight or even its smell.

YOUR 32,500 GRANDPAS

Flowing in your veins is the blood of 65,000 people who were walking the earth when Columbus discovered America, in 1492.

For instance, you have one father and one mother. Each of them had the same, which gives you two grandfathers and two grandmothers. Each of the latter had a father and mother, which gives you four great-grandpas and four great-grandmas.

Trace your family tree back through 18 generations, to about the year 1300, and you have 262,144 grandparents. That is, you're descended from that many.

Carry it back 5000 years and your ancestors would number so many that we couldn't begin to print their names in the issue of the Tribune you're now reading.

Did you ever drive your Ford up to your ancestors' old homestead and have some fellow, so old that no one could raise a question about him, say, "My! you're the walking image of your great-grandfather?"

In families that have ancient ancestral portraits, it often happens that a picture hundreds of years old looks like a child of the year 1921.

Unquestionably, if you had photographs of your ancestors as far back as 1000 years ago, you'd find that you are the exact duplicate of one of them.

Are you the reincarnation of that man or woman that looked so much like you far back in the past?

A large part of the world's population believes so.

Even more interesting is to wonder what kind of adventures he had—also the love romance that was responsible for your presence now on earth. What part of your physical make-up, intellect, emotions or character did you inherit from him? What part from his wife?

The Mendelian law of heredity, accepted by most scientists, says that all these are inherited from both sides.

Another school of scientists believes that your nerves and your skeleton are inherited from your mother's side, and that your father's line of descent furnishes you with your brains, hair, nails, muscles and your outer skin.

Material for much argument between ma and pa.

Most of us joke about tracing family trees. But this would be a kinder world if we all gave our ancestors more thought.

The fact that you are descended from 262,144 people who were living 600 years ago suggests that the brotherhood of man is more fact than imagination or sentiment.

Wonder if these people next door are distinctly related to you, far back in the mists of time.

JAIL 'EM

It would be better, if possible, to deter an assassin than to punish him after the crime.

Reckless auto drivers are potential assassins. A fine is a small deterrent. There would be fewer deaths in auto crashes if there were more jail sentences for offenders.

Also, there would be fewer traffic accidents if jaywalkers were given a few days in a cell to study how to cross the street.

89 YEARS AGO

"The boast that our country is the asylum for the oppressed in other parts of the world is very philanthropic and sentimental, but I fear that we shall before long derive little comfort from being made the almshouse and place of refuge for the poor of other countries."

That sounds as if it might have been said in 1921. It referred to immigration from England and Ireland, and was written in New York in 1832.

S. O. S.

Roger Bacon knew how dangerous it was in his century to think. Scientists were burnt as sorcerers. So he wrote the record of his scientific observations and experiments in cipher. He died in 1294, but his cipher remained unsolved until 1920.

Prof. William R. Newbold, of the University of Pennsylvania, has been decoding it at the rate of one page a month. Slow work.

He might get some help from the young men in the railroad ticket offices who seem able even to decipher their own time tables.

RUSSIA TURNS TO CAPITALISM

Repeated reports of the modification of Lenin's policy are now elaborated by a somewhat more detailed account. A dispatch from Riga gives a summary of the new policy approved by the recent Communist congress in Moscow.

Requisition on the peasantry is to be given up. Farmers are to retain two-thirds of their produce to dispose of through the co-operative organizations, which, despite Lenin's persecutions, have survived and grown stronger.

The largest industries, such as leather, salt and textiles, are to remain in the hands of the state and are to be sped up for the benefit of the peasants, who have been suffering from the inefficiency of sovietized manufacture. The bonus system will be adopted to induce the proletarian worker to work.

Small and medium co-operatives and private industries will now be encouraged. Personal initiative will be stimulated and equal pay will go by the board.

There will be relaxation of prosecution and removal of hindrances to free trade.

Thus Russia heads forward again to capitalism and private initiative. The attempt to function on Marxian theory and in defiance of human nature has failed and its failure is acknowledged in act if not in words.

What a sorry tale it is. What a commentary on the folly of frantic revolution. Lenin and his group drowned Russia in blood, destroyed accumulated wealth by billions, set up a cruel and destructive tyranny in the name of progress, and for all this Russia is presented with a primitive organization which places her far in the rear of human progress and will have to be perpetually changed and built up through generations before it reaches the efficiency for human security and happiness attained by the much abused capitalist system.

The Communist tragi-farce is not ended, but it is approaching its curtain. Fanatics will learn nothing from it, but it is teaching the teachable in every country a valuable lesson. Representative democracy and the cause of individual liberty will be fortified by its monstrous demonstration of the basic truths of civilized progress. This is some compensation for the obstruction to European restoration which the Communist mischief has worked in and out of Russia.—Chicago Tribune.

MANDAN NEWS

INSPIRING SESSION AT SALT LAKE

Mandan Delegate Tells of Program at General Federation Meeting

Mrs. Bernard S. Nilsson, retiring president of the Fortnightly Club, who has recently returned from the big General Federation of Women's Clubs meeting at Salt Lake City, reports many features of interest to local club women concerning the meeting.

In addition to the usual club programs, routine work, reports from state presidents and other department heads, there were some wonderful talks by prominent women, and some fine musical features. One of the most significant of the latter was the presentation of Haydn's "Cretion" in oratorio, by the Salt Lake Oratorio Society and accompanied by the Salt Lake Symphony orchestra. The Oratorio Society, which is composed of 300 trained voices and the orchestra numbering 100 members, formed the support for the soloists, Marjorie Maxwell, soprano, and Herbert Gould, basso, both of Chicago, and John Summerhouse of Salt Lake, tenor.

The effect was declared to be most impressive, one of the interesting features being that while the Federation women were provided with seats, there were thousands and thousands of people standing massed about the university campus, and the crowd was entirely silent during the rendition of the masterpiece.

It was given at seven o'clock in the evening on the campus of the University of Utah. At noon of one of the following days, Emma Lucy Gates gave a voice recital, accompanied by Mr. McClelland, organist at the Tabernacle, on the great organ, which is Salt Lake's boast.

A feature of the program most interesting to North Dakota women, was the appearance of Gertrude Bonnin of Washington, in an address "Americanizing the First American." Miss Bonnin is a full blood Sioux and gave her address dressed in native costume. Her talk was very eloquent, and her personality compared very favorably with the most cultured of the white women present.

A signal honor was vouchsafed Mrs. Arthur Peterson of Mandan, when Mrs. Elmer Blair of New York City, general chairman of the National Child Welfare Division paused in her address to make a special mention and commendation of Mrs. A. H. Peterson of North Dakota, state president of that division, for her constructive work and great assistance.

"I shall appoint five state presidents to specialize on a working program," said Mrs. Blair, "and one of those states will be North Dakota." North Dakota women and particularly those from Mandan and Bismarck, were quite thrilled at this high praise in a national meeting to one of their number.

There were five representatives from North Dakota in attendance, Mrs. Lyman N. Carr, state president, Miss Minnie J. Neilson of Bismarck, National head of the Department of Education, Mrs. Gailther of Bismarck, Mrs. Cousins of Carrington, and Mrs. Nielsen of Mandan.

Prominent Methodist To Occupy Pulpit

Dr. Thompson McKinney of Philadelphia, an evangelist of wide reputation will arrive in the city Saturday afternoon, and will occupy the pulpit of the Methodist Episcopal church here on Sunday morning. On Sunday evening the reverend doctor will speak in Bismarck at the evening service of the Methodist church.

Dr. McKinney will be the evangelist and one of the principal speakers at the Epworth League institute and big camp meeting which will be held at the fair grounds beginning on Monday, June 27th, to continue for the week.

Another prominent speaker to be in attendance at the institute is Dr. Leiseman of Chicago, whose subject will be "Bible study," he being an expert bible student.

A splendid attendance is looked for, Mott, Hettinger, Dickinson and other cities in this district having advised that they were sending delegations. There will be in connection with the more serious features, plenty of athletic and recreational activities, and the Mandan fair grounds will provide a most beautiful setting as a background.

ADVENTISTS DRAW CROWDS TO MEETINGS

City of Tents at Fair Grounds
Scene of Great Activity—
Blue Laws Discussed

A number of Mandan people drove to the city of tents on the fair grounds, on Wednesday evening to listen to an address at the Seventh Day Adventist services.

Dr. C. B. Thompson, an evangelist from Chicago, was the speaker and in his theme, the "Sunday Blue Laws," he gave a most convincing and thoroughly logical exposition of the fallacy of such measures.

Dr. Thompson chose as his text—

"Render unto Caesar the Things That Are Caesar's—Unto God the Things That Are God's," and using Caesar to represent the state and God the church, he conveyed the impracticability and the great mistake of confusing the two.

He declared laws established to force worship on Sundays to be both unconstitutional and unchristian. More than that, he insisted that such laws betrayed the purpose of the Declaration of Independence, in interfering with the liberty of conscience guaranteed by that document. The speaker did not talk from the point of view of the Adventist sect, nor from that of any other special religion, although he said that the enforcement of such laws with regard to Sunday would eventually have a tendency to establish only those religions which had Sunday as their Sabbath, to the exclusion of all others, a consummation directly opposite to our established form of government.

The evangelist was an able and eloquent speaker and persons who went to hear him found it well worth their while.

Miss Mueller To Address Students At State Normal

Miss Clara Mueller, superintendent of the Mandan Deaconess hospital left Thursday for a week's sojourn at Dickinson, where she will be the guest of Mrs. Elmer Robinson.

While there, Miss Mueller will address the students of the Dickinson Normal school, on "Opportunities in the Nursing Profession of Today." Miss Mueller in her talk will touch on all the avenues leading out of the today's training school, X-ray work, executive positions, anaesthetist, pathologist, bacteriologist, the drug department, which is a new and most important field, and also of the overwhelming demand for nurses. Never before, in the history of the profession, have the calls been so many and so urgent. All of the big hospitals are sending out speakers to various schools, appealing to the young women of education to take up the nursing career. Thousands of dollars are being spent in advertising by these hospitals, by reason of the shortage of trained nurses.

Miss Mueller will also address the women's association of the Dickinson Methodist church on one afternoon on "hospital needs and activities" and other pertinent subjects.

To Support Team.

Mandan baseball fans held a meeting Thursday evening at the Commercial club. There was a very fair attendance and various plans were submitted by interested persons for the raising of funds to support a full salaried team.

A financial report was given by S. E. Arthur, secretary-treasurer, and committee was appointed to assist the executive board in the procuring of funds. The personnel of this committee is Mike Mulready, Joe Matland, Bernard Regan, Harold Kramer and John Kennelly.

A great deal of enthusiasm was manifested and fans feel that with some reinforcement of the present team, we will be able to put a real team into the field.

Suffering From Blood Poison.

John Hoffman, a young man residing in the Heart River addition, is suffering from a bad case of blood poisoning as the result of a slight scratch on his hand.

Mr. Hoffman was fishing and in some manner caught the fish hook in his finger. The accident was slight and he paid no attention to it until infection occurred. It is feared that the finger may have to be amputated.

Train Service Interferes.

Under normal circumstances, there would have been a large attendance from Mandan at the open meetings of the Medical Association in Bismarck, but medical men and numbers of others who desired to attend have found it impossible to do so. There is only one train a day and in addition, the ferry is not running, half a mile of road between Mandan and the river being under water.

Committed From Minot.

Lavar Elfsen, who has been on parole from the State Training School, with another boy named Roy Christianson, has been committed to the Training School from Minot.

They were convicted of having "rolled", a traveling man for his watch and $127, and will remain in the institution until they are of legal age.

Goes to California.

Mrs. Lyman N. Carr, who with Mrs. B. S. Nickerson of Mandan attended the great General Federation meeting at Salt Lake City, has gone on to California, where she will be present at the graduation of her sons, William and Alison, from Leland Stanford. She will remain for some weeks visiting with them before returning to Mandan.

No Date Selected.

Nothing definite has been decided as yet concerning the date of the Town Criers convention, which was postponed temporarily because of the deranged train service. Major Welch, the head of the organization, is in correspondence with the other clubs and a new date will be chosen as soon as traveling conditions permit.

Returns to Hospital.

Miss Dorothy Smith who finished her three-year nursing course June 10th and has been enjoying a few days vacation has returned to the Deaconess hospital and will act as superintendent during the absence of Miss Clara Mueller, the superintendent.

Enjoy Outing.

The nurses of the Mandan Deaconess hospital enjoyed a splendid outing Wednesday afternoon, a part of which was a picnic on the banks of the Heart river, with a picnic lunch and various amusements for the afternoon.

Returned From Lake.

Hon. P. D. Norton returned Wednesday from a week's absence at Detroit Lake and Fargo. Mr. Norton also attended the two-day Legion celebration at Northwood, where he gave an address on Saturday.

Go to New Salem.

The Mandan baseball team go to New Salem Saturday, where they have a game Saturday with the New Salem team. On Sunday they will play Jamestown at Mandan.

Goes to Valley City.

Second baseman McGovern of the Mandan ball team went to Valley City Tuesday to play with the Valley City aggregation in Wednesday's game.

Returns Home.

Miss Esther Spencer of Fort Rice, who has been in Mandan some time a patient in the Deaconess hospital is convalescing and has returned to her home.

Returns From Trip.

Dr. Scott G. Larrabee returned on Thursday from Golden Valley, where he was called on a professional case some days ago.

Patients at Hospital.

Mrs. John Payne of Werner and Miss A. Schaefer of Flasher are patients at the local hospital.

From Stanton.

Roy Seibert of Stanton was in Mandan on business the first half of the week.

Mandan Visitor.

Mrs. Peter Fristad is a Mandan visitor from the Harmon vicinity.

GETTING ALONG GOOD.

Women are as great sufferers from kidney and bladder ailments as men. Foley Kidney Pills help rid the blood stream of impurities that cause rheumatic pains, backache, swollen, aching joints and stiff, painful muscles. Mrs. Carey, Box 91, R. F. D. No. 2, Middle-town, N. Y., writes "I had kidney trouble ever since I was a little girl, but I am getting along good since I have taken Foley Kidney Pills." They act immediately and help restore the kidneys to healthful activity.

LOCALS WHALE SOX PITCHER IN ONE ROUND

Six Runs and Five Hits in One Inning Enough to Win Second Game

Bismarck hitters operating at top point time, coupled with fine pitching by Higgins, caused the Calgary Black Sox to leave Bismarck for Valley City in mourning, having suffered two defeats in two days. The score last evening was 7 to 4, with Bismarck on the long end.

Avery, a left-hander, was in the box for the Black Sox, but his curves looked good at the start, but after reeling six men in succession in the first two innings he ran into a snag in the third. Higgins started the inning for Bismarck and he finished it. Bismarck batting around, Higgins hit for two bases for Bismarck's first hit of the game. Higgins was made safe on a hit which hopped bad and Swartz beat out a bunt, loading the bases. Bill Andler delivered a slashing hit in the pinch and continued all the way to third when the right fielder allowed the ball to go through him, three men scoring. Andler scored on Harper's sacrifice fly. Collins tied the center on Ellis' solid blow. Mel Anderson scored Ellis with a two bagger and Higge went out, short to first. This big inning, with six runs and six hits, was enough.

Higgins is Stingy
Higgins mowed the Black Sox down in fine style. Until the ninth, but after he ended up, the Black Sox had but four hits off him. The first hit came in the second, Moorman hitting for two bases. Gordon sacrificed and Anderson singled, scoring Moorman. The Black Sox did not score again until the ninth when, after pinch-hitter Scott went out to Andler, Boyd singled and Reed followed with a three-bagger. Duncan struck out but Lynch singled, scoring Reed. With two runs scored Higgins struck out Moorman in handy fashion.

Bismarck scored in the eighth. Anderson flied to right fielder making a two bases, the centerfielder making a bad catch but being unable to beat Higge out of the hit. Higgins went out, pitcher to first, and Higge scored on Shortstop Anderson's error on Swartz's grounder.

Play Errorless Ball
Bismarck played errorless ball, and contributed a couple of fast double plays. Cobbie and Harper were cutting up, saying that came down the left side of the field, and Andler handled 15 chances without error. Cobbie was given a hand for a running catch of a fly.

Bismarck goes to Dickinson today to play Sunday and Monday.

LIKE CARPENTIER BET ON DEMPSEY

New York, June 25. Wagering on the Dempsey-Carpentier bout for the world's heavyweight championship at Jersey City, July 2, is extremely light despite interest on two continents that promises to eclipse that evidenced in any previous title battle. Both men have numerous admirers who, as yet, have failed to back their

PROVING CLOTHES DON'T, ETC.—

You might think he was a tickler of the ivories in a cabaret, accompanying his synchopations with some thing like this: "She's a Jazz-Z-Z-Z Baby."

But a glance below proves that it's only our old friend, Georges Carpentier, all dressed up. Proving again that you can't always tell by the clothes they wear.

Opinions with much money. Stimulated wagering is expected on the eve of the bout with a probable inflow of currency from France. According to figures at which some money has been wagered—on Wall Street, Jack Dempsey seems likely to go into the ring an odds on favorite 3 to 1. Although in past bouts for the title the champion, almost invariably has been the favorite, not since the Sullivan-Corbett battle has the title holder been so strongly favored in a bout of major worth. Still van was a 4 to 1 choice over "Iron Horse" Jim. Willard was a 2 to 1 favorite over Jack Dempsey when the challenger won at Toledo. The Jeffries entered the ring favored at 2 to 1 to 1 to beat Jack Johnson at Reno. Johnson, three weeks before he met Jess Willard at Havana, was a 3 to 1 favorite but these figures shifted as the day of the bout approached and the negro climbed into the ring with the odds of only 6 to 5 in his favor. Jim Corbett was approximately a 2 to 1 shot over Bob Fitzsimmons when they met at Carson City.

The total amount of money wagered on the coming battle to date is estimated by a New York sporting man not to exceed $75,000. A large part of this amount has been placed in so-called "hook" bets. Odds of 9 to 1

HOW THE GREAT FIGHTERS OF SQUARED CIRCLE COMPARE

New York, June 24. Georges Carpentier, challenger of Jack Dempsey, will be smaller, in several respects than any other boxer who has fought in the title in recent years. Tommy Burns, from whom Jack Johnson wrested the crown, was shorter but heavier and more compactly built. Bob Fitzsimmons, on one day he lost the championship to Jim Jeffries at Long Island weighed 172 pounds, almost exactly what Carpentier will weigh when he climbs into the ring.

Dempsey will be larger than Carpentier in all save two important measurements. Carpentier's advantage will be in his wonderfully developed lower limbs and his neck. The Frenchman's calf measurement is 16 1/4 inches as compared with Dempsey's 15 1/4. Carpentier's neck measures 16 3/4 inches with Dempsey's one quarter inch smaller. Carpentier is about 20 pounds. He will stand 5 ft. 11 1/2 inches tall. He will outreach his rival by one inch, 74 inches to 73. In wrist and ankle development they are nearly equal, only a fraction of an inch giving Dempsey the advantage in each case. Dempsey's biceps measure

NICK TUBMLES FOR GOLF

NICK ALTROCK—HIS GOLF SWING AND A PAIR OF EXPRESSIONS.

Nick Altrock can be serious. It's when he's playing golf. He has to be serious then. There are no galleries to make laugh as he "putts" around the course.

So Nick, the greatest laugh specialist in baseball, becomes a hard thinker on the golf links.

He spends all the leisure time he can get away from his clown job with the Washington Senators buzzing around the greens.

While he is not a Walter Hagen or a Chick Evans with a set of sticks, Nick's game is coming along.

His ambition is to be able to beat Warren G. Harding, Clark Griffith and Colonel Bogle some day.

It's on the sidelines at the ball park where Nick shines.

Gloom-Killers
He has a brand-new set of gloom-killers this season.

Clark Griffith has a standing offer at the Georgia Avenue Park in Washington, guaranteeing to give any fans' money back that Nick can't separate from a long hearty giggle.

So far Griffith hasn't made any refunds.

Nobody knows except the club officials what Nick draws down in his pay envelope as the club's laugh specialist. Whatever figure it is, Nick is worth it. He is a good 50 per cent of the drawing powers of the Washington ball club.

Nick has been clowning for Griffith since 1912.

Each year he adds fresh wallops to his fun repertoire—and better.

Circus managers and movie magnates have tried to book him. But Nick likes his job at the ball park best.

NEW MAN WILL JOIN BISMARCK BASEBALL CLUB

Nichols, Second Baseman of Detroit, Mich., to Play at Dickinson

"Bill" Nichols, of Detroit, Mich., was to join the Bismarck baseball team this afternoon to go to Dickinson with the team for Sunday and Monday games. Nichols is a second baseman, bats and throws right-handed, weighs 190 pounds, and played with Larry Cobbie and Manager Joe Collins on the Bullock team at Flint, Michigan, last summer. Swartz, who is one of the fastest men in the state, is playing one ball in left field, filling Finnegan's shoes acceptably, and he will continue in that position.

President Frayne Baker and Secretary H. F. Keller, of the local club, were trying to line up games for next week, today. Either Minot or Jamestown may be secured.
